Elizabeth Carmel is a Sierra-based photographer specializing in unique, expressive landscapes and “waterscapes”. Her prints combine dramatic photography, vivid colors, and artistic touches to create new, captivating visions of the natural world. Using ultra-high resolution medium format digital photography, she is able to capture the subtle details of the natural world and transfer them to large prints with stunning clarity and color. She does her own printing on fine art paper or canvas with long-life pigmented inks. Ms. Carmel has spent years exploring and photographing the diverse landscapes of the world. Her award-winning images are in numerous museums, galleries and private collections throughout the United States. In recognition of her unique fine art imagery and technical expertise, Elizabeth is one of twelve photographers worldwide honored with the Hasselblad Master Photographer award for 2006. Elizabeth and her husband Olof, who is also a fine art landscape photographer, own and operate The Carmel Gallery in Truckee, California.
